Research Report: Consumer Adoption Survey 2024

Abstract
We surveyed 1655 participants about adoption of digital tools and measured satisfaction.

Methodology
Participants were recruited online and responded to a structured questionnaire.

Results
Overall adoption was 21.7%, with dropout at 8.3%.

Discussion
Findings suggest that usability and trust are the strongest predictors of adoption.

Conclusion
Further longitudinal work is needed to confirm these preliminary results.